Even in the 20th Century,
social status
does exist!
And also...

Even in the 21st century,
that has so little
time left...

Even in the 22nd century,
when I already died,
it will continue
to exist!

For sure the spirit
of the fairness in this
democracy happened to hide
that social system.
The fact that they
hide it...
is an approval of
its existence!

Ever since the beginning...
I am the queen...
You are...
THE KNIGHT!

*If the world started
chose girls over boys,
in refounds... what will happen?*

If I'm not the queen...

There...

*Then yes...
For what would
you remain...?*

Even one is enough!
Let us take one picture!

Is she really the biological granddaughter?
Did she take a DNA test?

It's being said that the main character is a high school girl...
Is it true?

Then after President Yang Doe-Chul's death, is that high school girl will be the owner of Yang Han Group?

I don't know anything!
Please go
away!

Over there!
It's that girl!

Take the picture!
Take it!

*How do you
feel, right
now?*

RICK

*Have you had a reunion
with President Jung Dae-Oh?
You said you don't remember
anything from your childhood period,
is this true?*

*Do you know
what it will mean to become the owner of Jung Han group?*

YOUNG

*Jung Han's stocks
are plunging, do you
have a plan to deal
with this?*

STARTING FROM
TODAY, I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO BE YOUR MISTRESS'
BODYGUARD!

A report
came in!
Dispatch them!

Aah! I'm going crazy! Crazy!
How do we catch
these hoodlums who
risk their lives
getting away
from us?

If we want to safely catch
them, we have
to give up an
arm and a
leg!

Why do we have to catch these damn
punks safely?
They'll only get
their act
together if they get mixed up in
an accident!

Right! Endangering a civilian's safety in a traffic disruption is a real evil of society! We have to wipe them completely away and put them to death!

My first translation project was tough, only because I didn't really like the manga at first. Then, after kept reading, I found out that I actually liked it a lot. So I'm grateful for being able to share late this and share it with others.
